General Plan discussion draft to be released online Nov. 4
Island-wide community meetings to follow

LĪHU'E – County officials announced that a discussion draft of the General Plan will be released online on Friday, Nov. 4 for public review with island-wide community meetings to follow.

The plan will be available at www.plankauai.com. Printed copies will be also be on reserve at the public libraries.

The discussion draft is based on input provided during public outreach events over the course of 16 months including community, small group, neighborhood association, major landowners, and government agencies meetings as well as at special events and via social media.

The draft contains a vision, goals, policies, actions and land use maps that our intended to guide Kaua'i's future growth.

Comments to the draft can be emailed to plankauai@kauai.gov, shared at the upcoming meetings or mailed to: Kaua'i County Planning Department, Attn: Long Range Division; 4444 Rice Street, Suite A473, Līhu'e, HI 96766.

The comment period will end on Friday, Dec. 2.
